Voter Awareness Campaign

Date: 30 December 2025

Department of Political Science, Dr. Patangrao Kadam Mahavidyalaya, Ramanandnagar (Burli), organized a voter awareness campaign to boost women's participation in Gram Sabha's. Under this initiative, rural women in Dudhondi village were directly met, informed about the importance of Gram Sabhas and their opinions on democracy and elected representatives were gathered. Students from the first, second, and third years of the Political Science department enthusiastically participated in this program, students appealed to rural women to actively participate in the decision-making process through the Panchayati Raj system. They provided information on the importance of voting, their rights. The women shared their issues and expressed their views.

The students received valuable guidance from the college principal, Prof. Dr. U. V. Patil. On this occasion, the Head of the Department, Prof. Dr. Shital Patil, Prof. Shailesh Kamble, Prof. Rajesh Pawar, and Prof. Sarita Nikam were present.

Outcomes –

- Students gained practical experience of the Panchayati Raj system by visiting the field.
- Students succeeded in making rural women understand the importance of democracy, information about the making of the Constitution and the great personalities who contributed to its creation.

Beneficiaries – 20 students, and some women
