“Online Quiz on the occasion of World Population Day”

Dt. 11th July, 2025.

Department of Economics of Dr. Patangrao Kadam Mahavidyalaya, Ramanandnagar (Burli) organized online quiz on the occasion of ‘World Population Day 2025’ was a meaningful and educational initiative. The event successfully met its objectives by creating awareness, enhancing knowledge and engaging participants in a thoughtful academic activity. The enthusiastic response and positive outcomes reflect the relevance of such programs in promoting population education and social awareness. The online quiz was organized to commemorate World Population Day with the following objectives,

1. To create awareness among participants about population dynamics in India
2. To enhance knowledge regarding demographic trends, census data, population policies and challenges.
3. To encourage analytical thinking on issues related to population growth, distribution and sustainability.
4. To promote active participation and learning through an interactive online format.

The online quiz consisting of 20 multiple choice questions focusing on various aspects of the Indian population like Population growth and trends in India, Census and demographic indicators, Population policies and programs, Age structure, sex ratio, literacy and migration, Population challenges and sustainable development. The quiz was conducted in a smooth and systematic manner using an online platform. Clear instructions were provided to participants before the commencement of the quiz. The time limit ensured fairness and encouraged quick analytical thinking. The quiz was open to Undergraduate and postgraduate students, Research scholars,

Faculty members and interested learners. Participants from various academic backgrounds registered and took part in the event.

The event witnessed enthusiastic participation. Participants actively attempted all questions and showed keen interest in understanding population related issues. The online format enabled wider participation and easy accessibility. Responses were evaluated automatically through the online system and E-certificates were provided to all participants as a token of appreciation and encouragement.

Outcomes:

1. Participants gained improved understanding of India's population structure, trends and challenges.
2. The quiz strengthened participants' knowledge of demographic concepts related to economics and social sciences.
3. The questions encouraged analytical thinking on population related issues and policy implications.
4. The online mode promoted digital learning and active participation.
