"Death Anniversary of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar"

Dt. 6th December, 2025.

The Cultural Committee and Department of Economics of Dr. Patangrao Kadam Mahavidyalaya, Ramanandnagar (Burli) jointly organized a solemn floral tribute and insightful guest lecture on 6th December 2025 to commemorate the death anniversary of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, with a special focus on his contributions as a Great Economist. The event began with a dignified floral tribute at the portrait of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, paying homage to his legacy as the architect of the Indian Constitution and a visionary social-economic thinker. The program was presided over by Prin. Dr. (Mrs.) U. V. Patil who welcomed the guests and highlighted the enduring relevance of Dr. Ambedkar's economic philosophy. The chief guest Dr. A. S. Patil delivered the keynote address. He elaborated on Dr. Ambedkar's role in framing, India's financial architecture, his work on land reforms, monetary policy and labor rights, emphasizing how his ideas continue to guide inclusive economic planning. An engaging lecture on "Dr. B. R. Ambedkar as a Great Economist" was presented, discussing his scholarly works such as "The Problem of the Rupee" his advocacy for industrialization, agricultural modernization and his emphasis on social justice as a cornerstone of economic development. The commemoration was a meaningful academic tribute that highlighted Dr. B. R. Ambedkar's profound impact as an economist and nation-builder. The department expressed gratitude to all dignitaries, organizers and participants for making the event insightful and memorable. Overall Cultural Committee chairman Dr. Amol Kamble, Head, Department of Economics Mr. K. S. Gangode, faculty members and students are presence the program.

Outcomes:

1. Participants gained deeper insights into Dr. B. R. Ambedkar's economic vision beyond his role as a social reformer.
2. Students were encouraged to explore Dr. B. R. Ambedkar's interdisciplinary contributions and their relevance in today's socio-economic context.
3. The event successfully honored Dr. B. R. Ambedkar's memory while reinforcing his intellectual legacy within the academic community.
