Report of Spoken English Course
2023-2024

The Department of English has organized a Spoken English course in the academic year 2023-2024. The syllabus was framed by a Board of Studies Member. The syllabus was activity-based. Structural and Functional grammar was introduced. Due to the activity-based syllabus, students were involved and participated actively in every activity. It helped them to improve their knowledge of the vocabulary and structure of the English language. It enabled them to understand and develop their four basic skills of language. It created interest in learning English among the students. Five students enrolled for this concerned course. The course started on 1st March 2024. Lectures were taken from Monday to Thursday of every week. The duration of this course was 30 days 60 hours. The session of each day was of 2 hours. One hour for teaching theory and one hour for practical. After the final session, an evaluation test of 50 was conducted. After the completion of this course, certificates were issued to the students.

Objectives:

To enable the students to develop four basic skills of the English language- listening, speaking, reading, and writing.

1. To develop students' ability to use English in day-to-day life and real-life situations.
2. To understand the written text and be able to use skimming and scanning skills.
3. To write simple English to express ideas.
4. To pronounce English correctly and intelligibly.
5. To use appropriate word stress, sentence stress, and elementary intonation patterns.
6. To speak intelligibly while making statements, asking questions, giving instructions and commands, and reporting events

Learning Outcomes:

- Developed vocabulary, structure, and four basic skills of language.
- Created confidence while speaking in English.
- Enabled students to use English in day-to-day life.
- Created interest in learning English.
